Behind The Scenes

The high school years are years of learning, but not all of this learning takes place in the classroom. Those who have participated in athletics, in club activities, in theatre productions, and in the many other facets of extracurricular life have gained something that could never have been acquired exclusively through formal academic instruction. Friends and activities outside of school also provide valuable experience in living, and all contribute towards our emergence as mature and responsible individuals. The 1966 LEX staff has attempted to bring to the foreground these many activities, that, while they may not be directly related to formal learning, still provide a vital part of the high school education.

The 1966 LEX invites you "Behind the Scenes of Education."

Of Education

LEADERSHIP

Dr. Gaynor Petrequin,

Principal

"Learning how to learn must become the essence of education," so begins the published report of the Oregon Governor's Education Improvement Advisory Commission. Further it states: "We need to learn more about how to encourage creative thinking.... Teachers need time and assistance in seeking the myriad ways to offer each student what he needs to know.... All schools must develop great flexibility in the scheduling and grouping of students."

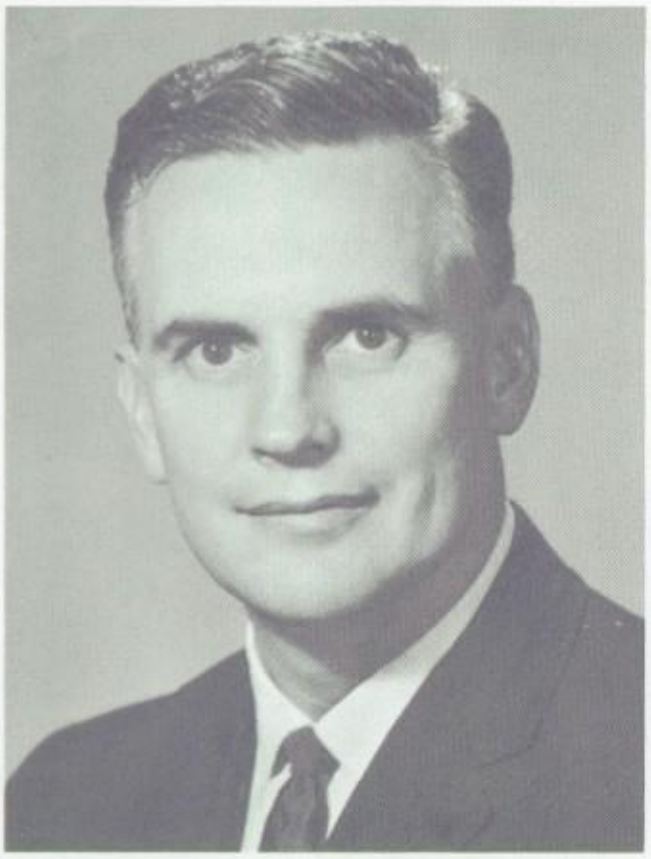
These newly enunciated educational aims and techniques are being attained by students and staff at Marshall High School. The Governor's Committee, meeting at Marshall the past year, heard a two-hour report by teachers and students on our modular flexible program. The influence of the Marshall program on the Governor's Committee can only be surmised. The singular impact on American education of Marshall's pioneer modular flexible schedule is certainly evident to knowledgeable educators.

Typical of a variety of evidence to support this immodest statement is a current publication from the University of Nebraska announcing a workshop for secondary school administrators of the Midwest which states: "John Marshall High School, Portland, Oregon, has...developed what is generally regarded as the outstanding program in the utilization of these new approaches to secondary school organization of staff and schedule."

The great hope of the Marshall staff and community is that their students tutored under an enlightened and forward-looking educational design will attest to its ultimate value by each one finding the greatest success possible commensurate with his talents, capabilities and interests. The ultimate validation of our efforts rests with our graduates.

The entire Marshall staff joins me in wishing our 1966 Seniors true success and happiness based on a life in large measure dedicated to the service of others, to the advancement of the community, and to the brotherhood of man.

Administration Guides Marshall Through Another School Year



Mr. William Gray

Curriculum vice-principal, Mr. Wm. Gray, concentrates mainly on the improvement of instruction at Marshall. He holds a Bachelor's degree from Oregon State University, and a Master's degree from Lewis and Clark.

Miss Rose B. Coffman

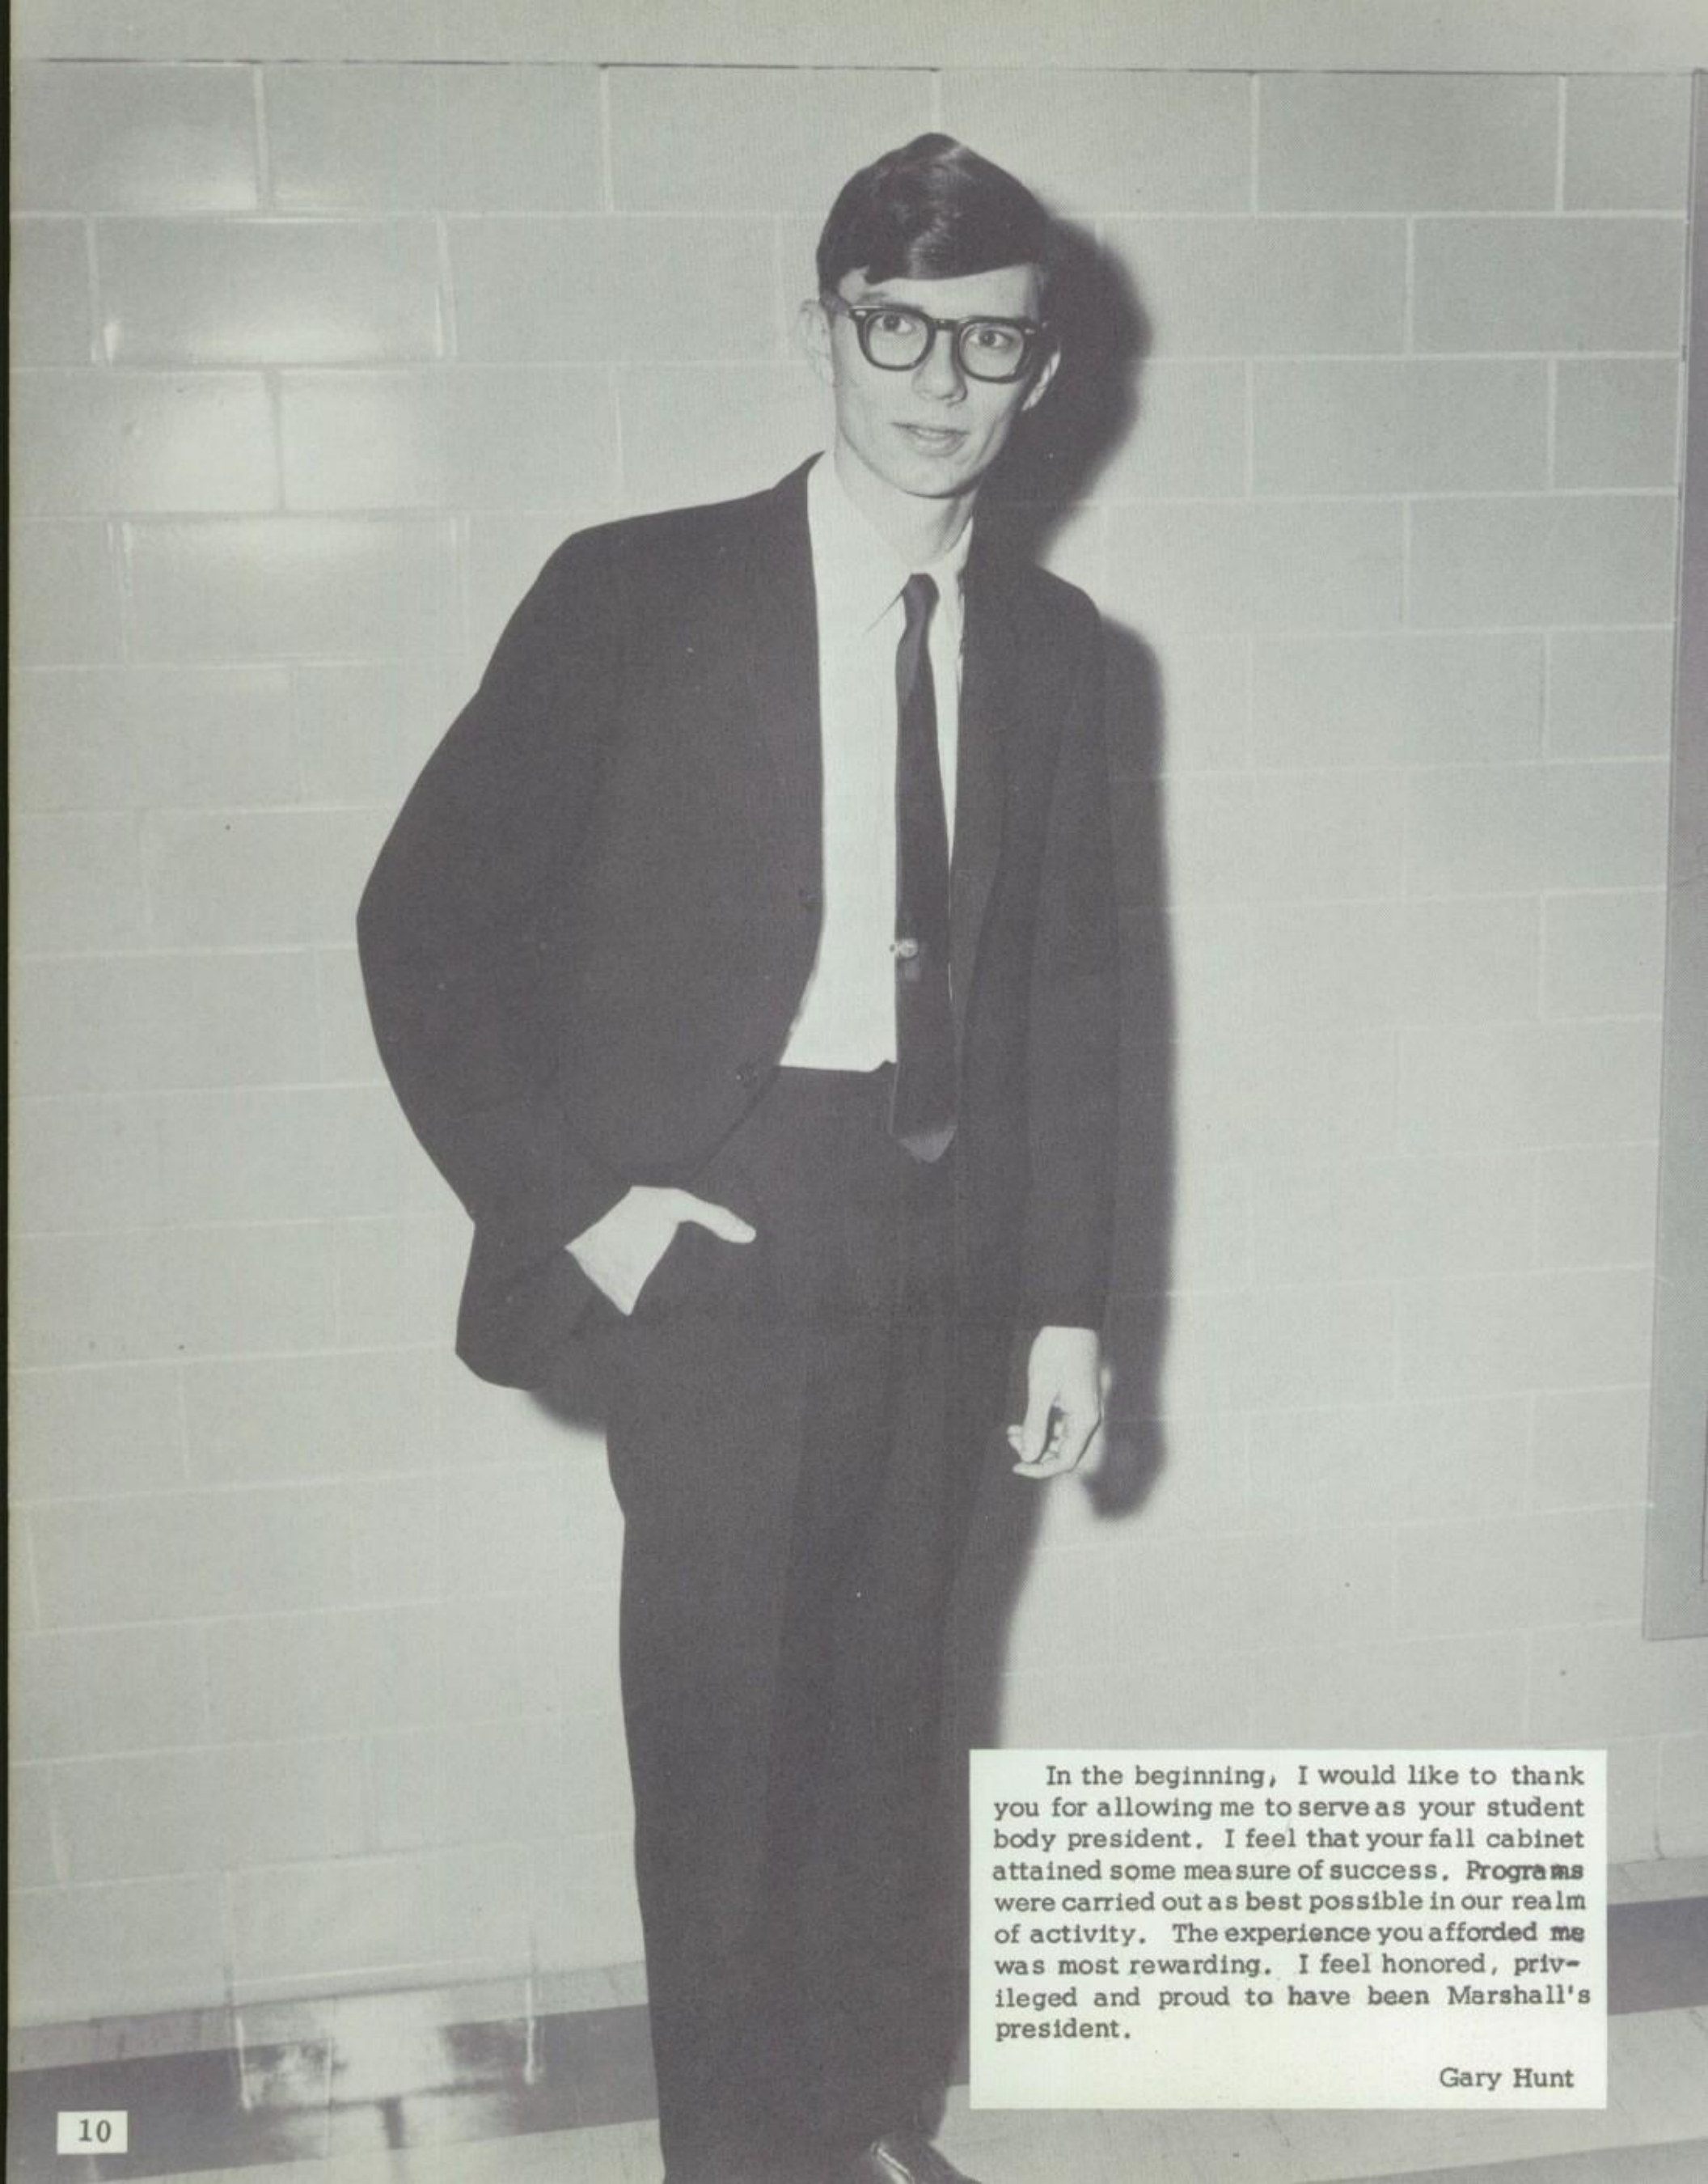
Miss Rose B. Coffman, Dean of Girls, is also responsible for Pep Club, Rally Squads, Rose Festival activities, and Girls' League. Miss Coffman holds a B.A. from Parsons College in Iowa, and a M.Ed. from the University of Oregon.

Mr. William Tapfer

Mr. William Tapfer, co-ordinating vice-principal, supervises projects and evaluatory studies that come under the jurisdiction of the Oregon Program. He received his Bachelor's degree from Oregon State University and his M.Ed. from the University of Oregon.

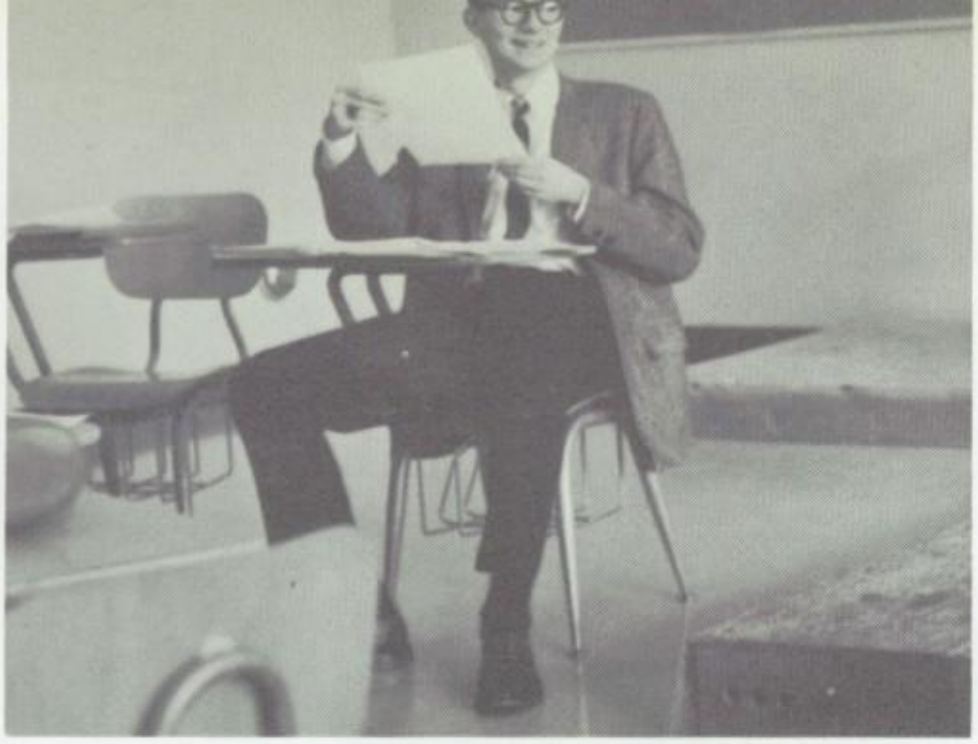
Mr. Dean Miller

Administrative vice-principal, Mr. Dean Miller, serves as Dean of Boys, as well as supervising all school activities. Mr. Miller received his B.A. and M. Ed. at the University of Oregon.



In the beginning, I would like to thank you for allowing me to serve as your student body president. I feel that your fall cabinet attained some measure of success. Programs were carried out as best possible in our realm of activity. The experience you afforded me was most rewarding. I feel honored, privileged and proud to have been Marshall's president.

Gary Hunt



Gary Hunt opens an Executive Cabinet meeting.

The Executive Cabinet, consisting of the student body officers, the class presidents, Men's League president, Girls' League president, and the Verdict Editor-In-Chief, meets eight modules a week under the guidance of Mr. Donald Hune, activities director. In this leadership class, which is worth a half-credit for those who wish to be graded, student leaders discuss school and student government problems and plan school activities.

A spirited Homecoming Week, needed constitutional revisions, worthwhile assemblies- these were but a few of the accomplishments of the fall student body cabinet. Gary Hunt president; Doug Ayers, vice-president; Janet Hentges, secretary; Charlotte Larson, activities chairman; and Janis Tambara, treasurer were the members of one of the most active cabinets Marshall has seen.

Don Madsen, senior, works at voting booth where Gary Hunt is casting his vote in the spring student body elections.

Doug Ayers, vice-president; Janet Hentges, secretary; Janis Tambara, treasurer; and Charlotte Larson, activities chairman.

Mary Spellman, vice-president; Julie Schultz, treasurer; Linda Green, secretary; and Judy Geisler, activities chairman.

Swygart Takes Over In Spring

Bob Swygart, president; Mary Spellman, vice-president; Julie Schultz, treasurer; Linda Green, secretary; and Judy Geisler, activities chairman were the members of the spring Student Body Cabinet elected January 14.. Under the direction of Mary Spellman, the Student Senate became a more meaningful organization. A Student Faculty Administration Control Committee was formed to promote understanding between the three school divisions represented. Marshall's traditional May Fete was organized by the Executive Cabinet and supervised by Judy Geisler. Other accomplishments included a fund raising faculty-Varsity basketball game and the supervision of fall '66 elections.

Bob Swygart, student body president, speaks in drama assembly.

Dr. Petrequin, faculty senate members, and representatives of S. C. A. R. bring an administration proposal before the student body.

In no other capacity could I have gotten to know you better. Many thanks for your trust and support.

Marshall's business department offers various courses to prepare students for the world of business. In the D.E. (distributive education) class, students attend school half a day and work the other half. Business law and general business teach the principles of checking, taxes, and loans. Bookkeeping, typing, shorthand, briefhand and record keeping are designed to develop secretarial skills. The BOA (business office assistant) class provides students with actual experience in office work and business transactions.

Future business students study quietly in the business resource center.

The Freshman English And Social Studies Department...

Freshman English and social studies is divided into three levels - A, B, and C. The combined freshman English and social studies teaching team worked together to introduce Marshall to the incoming frosh. They later ventured to teach world culture and further understanding of literature. In the Freshman Resource Center the students can find time to complete their work and, if further help is needed, the teachers conference rooms are open and the resource center aide is always willing to help.

Distortion

by Gary Halliburton

The sound of my foot as it steps upon the pavement.
The faint echo as the sound reverberates back to my ears.
The trees, enveloped in a misty countenance.
A faint and blurry light ahead catches my eye.
The silent velvet darkness that wraps itself around me.
As if to keep me imprisoned forever.
Yet, I remember how, hours ago, I walked this same path,
Saw the same trees,
And heard the same sounds.
But the trees were clearer,
And the sounds hadn't any echo.
And there was no light.
No light is needed when one is in reality.
Then, I was in reality.
Now, I am faced with a certain unreality,
That gives me a fear.
A fear of uncertainy, of unreality,
A fear that even though I know that I am in this same place in reality,
Cannot be disguized when I am in unreality,
But, what is reality? What is unreality?
By what can I measure it?
I do not know.
Does Anybody?

Russian, Latin, Spanish, French and German were the five languages offered at Marshall during the 1965-66 school year. All five languages were taught by the Audio-Lingual Method excluding the more advanced students who were taught by the traditional method. Books, pamphlets, records, tapes with responsive drills, and large and small group discussions aid the A-LM procedure. This year is the last Russian will be taught due to a lack of interested students. Teaching efforts will be centered on the remaining four languages.

During the school year the language classes did various things within their individual groups. German students read a play in German to the rest of their class. The French students took advantage of the tape recorders, record players, overheads and other machines available at student disposal. Two foreign exchange students from Brazil and Argentina now attending other Portland high schools visited the Spanish class. Russian students displayed the Russian Samovar which they borrowed from Mr. Warnes, typing teacher. Finally, Latin students write sentences for both teacher and class to read and analyze.

Those students with an interest in symphonies and concerts can join Marshall's fine orchestra, directed by Mr. Ralph Salyard.

There are individual choral classes for boys and girls. More advanced students may quality for 'A' Choir or the Clarions. Either individually or combined, these three musical groups have provided the student body with some outstanding assemblies - Christmas, Thanksgiving, Rose Festival, speech and drama, pep and many others.

Outstanding Girls ...

Each month during the school year girls are nominated by reg. rooms to be considered for girl of the month at an open Girls' League meeting. The girl may be from any class but must possess a certain outstanding quality.

Judy Geisler
Friendliness

These girls are approved by Miss Coffman, Dean of Girls, and are then voted on by the female members of the student body. The girl chosen is presented with a traditional bracelet inscribed with "A.M.G. Outstanding Girl" which she wears for one month.

Marshall's Fifth Rose Princess Was Revealed . . .

Row 1: Mary Young, Bev Shankle, Jennifer Sheehan, and Chris Kolias.
Row 2: Janet Hentges, Pam Orazio, Julie Schultz, Vicki Fox, and Nancy Bailey.
Row 3: Marlise Miller, Sue Proppe, Karen Morgan, Billie Goodman, Mary Spellman, and Laurie Woodruff.

The first phase of Rose Festival selection took place April 8. All senior girls wore cotton dresses and heels, walked across the auditorium stage and repeated names and reg. rooms. The girls were judged on poise and posture, and thirty five girls who possessed these qualifications were selected.

These thirty-five were then judged on poise and speaking ability, and after being interviewed by a panel consisting of teachers, vice-principal Miss Coffman, class presidents, Girls' league and Men's league officers and fall and spring student body presidents the number was narrowed to fifteen.

The semi-final judging eliminated all but six girls. The Rose Court was composed of those girls who had the best prepared speeches, best extemporaneous speeches and the most graceful bows. The 1966 Court members were; Nancy Bailey, Vicki Fox, Mary Spellman, Sue Proppe, Mary Young, and Marlise Miller.

Came To Mind As Seniors

As the class of '66' prepares for graduation many of the events of the last four years come to mind.

The basketball team going to STATE, flexible scheduling, our wrestling team taking the city championship-all were events that highlighted our years at Marshall.

Following our basketball team to STATE was the highlight of a victorious freshman year. Banners posted in the halls, spirit assemblies and the victory dance all promoted this hard earned opportunity.

Flexible scheduling, a new system of education, was introduced to Marshall in 1963. Mass confusion arose while students as well as teachers struggled to adjust to the new program. But it proved to be a successful sophomore year.

Seeing our wrestling team take city championship filled the junior year with excitement. This event was climaxed at the State wrestling match when a member of the team took the City Champ title.

With spring came the election of Student Body and Senior Class officers. The ballots were tabulated and the results posted and the new leaders took the first big step toward a busy senior year.

Classes, activities, assemblies, and friends all take on a new and different meaning as seniors. The traditional Senior Prom is an event to be long remembered by each senior, as it marks the last social activity concerning the class of '66' as a whole. After graduation, many seniors will fondly remember John Marshall High School as they look forward to a promising future.

Finishing the season with two wins and seven losses the Marshall football team, ranked ninth in the P.I.L. standings. Marshall started strong as Washington and Cleveland were defeated 20-0. Although the remaining games were lost, the team fought hard and scored in every game but the last, when Jefferson won 27-0.

The team had two big problems. The first was the injuries, which started early in the season and seriously hampered team performance. Bob Roach hurt his arm in one of the first games of the season. Just as Roach was back in action, Frank Savage pulled a muscle in his leg during the Hillsboro game. When Savage was walking again, tackle Jerry Accuardi wrecked his leg in the Grant game. Another problem was experience. Since a lot of the boys on this year's team did not play in varsity games last year, they lacked needed varsity experience.

According to the coaches some of the best players of the season were Frank Savage, Jack Donaldson, Dennis Langston, Bob Swygart, Rod Jenkins, seniors; Mike Churchill, Dan Leary, and Tom Miller, Juniors. The most improved junior of the season was Mike Churchill and the most inspirational player was Jack Donaldson, senior.

The fall '65 Varsity Rally was one of the most unique that Marshall has seen. They were always behind the team, presenting good luck symbols to each of the players before each game and cheering them on during the games. To kick off the season, the rally arranged for a helicopter to drop a football onto Marshall's field before the first game. The Rally's yells and dances were new and different, as demonstrated by the Sack Dance, using boys' jackets and sack masks. To the cry of "Eleven, twelve...Hike!", the Fall Varsity Rally led the Minutemen through a spirited football season.

This rally wore white sweaters with red and blue belts fitted loosely around the hips, over white pleated skirts with red insets. Blue shoes and blue pom-poms completed the girls' uniforms. The Rally Kings wore white shirts and levis accented with navy sweaters and tennis shoes. The rally girls were also prepared for rainy weather with red patent raincoats and black rain hats and boots.

Led by Mr. Dale Christiansen and Mr. Ron Simonis, the J.V. gridders collected two wins and five losses during the season. The spirited M-Men smashed Lincoln by a score of 28-6 and overpowered Wilson 19-13. These wins demonstrated the team's ability and great future potiential.

Melvin Fox, sophomore, was the outstanding player of the season. The Central Catholic transfer played defensive end and offensive tackle.

J. V. Rally
Promotes Football Spirit

The Fall Junior Varsity Rally, spirited supporters of Marshall's J. V. football team, started their hard work before school began in September. During the summer they worked up routines, dances, and yells, and designed their uniforms, which consisted of red sweaters with white blouses along with red pleated skirts with white insets. Red and blue suede shoes and blue pom-poms completed their outfits.

The boys wore walking shorts with white shirts, blue sweaters and blue knee-socks.

Fall Assemblies
Were Both Serious And Witty

Marshall's football team is presented in an all-school assembly.

A variety of assemblies were presented during the fall. The rallies sponsored many unusual pep assemblies, from humorous when the rally dressed as hillbillies to create spirit for the Hillsboro game to serious, when outstanding athletes were honored with awards.

The U.M.M. assembly featured the Three D's, and the Junior Class brought the Aladdins from Franklin to entertain the student body.

The first homecoming week in Marshall's history brought many activities. The candidates for homecoming queen were presented in an assembly, October 23. The candidates were Cathy Billingsley, Lesley Cox, Sue Proppe, Marlise Miller, and Karen Morgan, all seniors. Master and Mistress of ceremonies were seniors Steve Byrd and Mary Young. An Ugly Man Mask contest, held on Wednesday, was won by Reid Sono, junior. Posters from each class were judged and awarded spirit trophy points. Homecoming "mums" were sold Thursday and Friday. A Wishing Well was established in the Student Union for donations from students. All proceeds from homecoming activities went to the United Good Neighbor's Fund.

In the Homecoming game Friday, October 22, Wilson defeated Marshall 28-7. Half-time entertainment was provided by Marshall's Band and drill-team.

"Hawaiian Splendor" was the theme of the Homecoming dance. Steve Byrd crowned queen Karen Morgan, and Dennis Langston, senior, presented her with roses. The theme was carried out in lovely decorations. Nets were hung from the ceiling and leis decorated the poles and handrails. The throne was set in the background of a Hawaiian hut and palm trees. Couples danced to music presented by the Marshall Dance Band.

Swim meets had exciting moments; here, M-men swimmers dive.

Demonstrates Fair Play

The M-men swimmers under the direction of Mr. Kay Mendenhall, splashed through the season with four wins out of a possible ten.

Practice took place early in the morning at the John R. Leach pool. The season began October 4, with the M-men competing with Wilson at Couch. Buckman was host to other swim meets during the season, which ended November 1.

Three year swimmers, Bob Goodwin, Robert Stein, and Tom Brandt, all juniors, accumulated many points for Marshall. Most inspirational and holding the most individual points was Bob Goodwin, junior Spring J. V. Rally members were Karen Williams, Diane Nakashimada, Sandi Yocum, Earletta Keithley, Joyce Matthews, and Janice Fahrney. They have worked hard since fall preparing to represent the school and J.V. Basketball team. The girls helped the Spring Varsity Rally promote spirit during assemblies. They also aided the school by improving relationships with other school rallies during game half-times. The girls prepared a dance to the song 'Bomba', which they presented in the pep assembly, January 7.

White skirts with blue plaid insets and blue plaid jackets trimmed in white were worn by the rally. They added school colors, red, white, and blue, with their pom-poms, and completed the outfits with blue shoes.

Extra-mural teams, the Liberty Belles and the Muskettes, coached by Miss Fran Birge, represented Marshall in the City Park Bureau tournament. Out of the six games both teams played, the Muskettes lost all six and the Liberty Belles won all their games.

The Liberty Belles' last win tied them for the city championship. On March 10 at 7:00 p.m. at Grant High School, the Belles took the city championship by beating Madison 37-11. Members of both teams played in an exhibition game with Marycrest on March 2. The game was in favor of Marycrest 19-18, on Marshall's court.

In Matches Through The Season

Frosh seasonal wrestling coached by Mr. Kay Mendenhall, began when the M-Men grapplers defeated Benson 29-27. The next two matches with Cleveland and Madison were lost 30-25 and 45-13. Overtaking Jefferson by a score of 42-19, the Frosh also dropped Wilson 32-26. By mid-season, the freshmen wrestlers held a record of 3 wins - two losses.

The next four matches were won consecutively by the spirited Frosh. Grant, Roosevelt, Franklin and Lincoln were all added to the Frosh record, being now 7 wins, and 2 losses. The scores were 37-23 over Grant, 38-15 Roosevelt losing, Franklin's defeat 29-19, and Lincoln's loss 33-29. At the end of the season, Marshall was invited to the Frosh Invitational at Grant, February 23, where the team gave a fine performance.

Outstanding wrestling raised the M-Men grapplers to a four-way tie for the PIL crown. Marshall had 29 points at semi-final time and entered eight wrestlers in the City Tournament at Grant. Taking the PIL mat crown from Grant, Wilson, and Benson, with 102 points, the victory gave seven M-Men wrestlers the chance to compete in the State Meet. Dan Colvin was named the City Meet's outstanding wrestler by a vote from the coaches.

Robbie Rust, Royce Kelly, Jim Nearing, Dan Colvin, Steve Armstrong, Mike Bilyeu, and Rod Jenkins represented Marshall in the State finals at Corvallis. Marshall collected three team points in the final state standing.

The theme of the 1966 Country Fair was "This Land is Our Land ". In the gym show, April 1 and 2, Chris Bomersheim, junior, and Ben Harkleroad sophomore, played the dancing leads in a story of a girl touring the United States.

Sue Benedict, junior, assisted in the writing of the script for the gym show. General chairman was Mr. Harper , and working under his directions were committee chairman: director, Mrs. Hamilton; props, Miss Miller; acts, Miss Stevens, Miss Birge, and Mrs. Hamilton. The music department consisting of the dance band, band, and choir provided the musical background and entertainment during all performances.

The Marshall Dad's Club, sponsors, also provided help in the production of the fair. They construct the booths and the fair midway, organize publicity, and provide prizes. The P.T.A. provided the food sold at the fair.

Also helping to make the fair a success were the Audio-visual students working on sound and lighting effects in the gym show.

Rifle Team Has Successful Season

The Marshall Masters competed with other schools from December to February losing only two matches to Johnson Creek and Beaverton. The Masters shot for second with Sunset and came out victorious. On Saturday, March 26, the M-Men shooters fired in the Metro match at the Portland Rifle and Pistol Club.

Practices took place on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after school in Marshall's own rifle range below the administrative offices. Mr. Forrest Siemroth is the director of the Rifle Club.

Marshall's Varsity track division participated in many meets during the season. Coached by Mr. Max Lane, the M-Men competed with Cleveland on May 5, and in the city meet-state qualifying on May 20. Track meets were held on April 1, Madison on April 8. The M-Men participated in a javelin and discus meet on April 14, and the city relays on April 15.

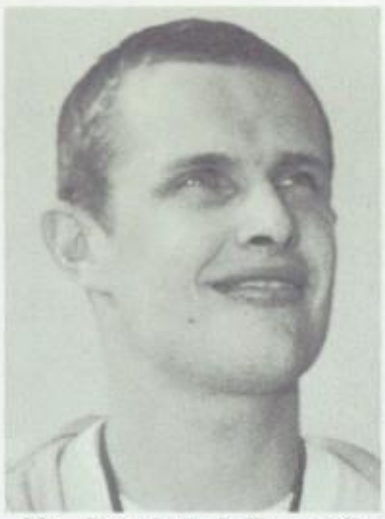
Crashing Jefferson 73-58, the M-Men took a total of nine firsts in track and field events. On the track, the low hurdles were taken by Frank Savage, senior, in 20.4 seconds; Kerry Hart, junior, captured the high hurdles in 16.7 seconds, Tom Taylor, junior, crossed the line first in the mile in 4:35.8 and Gary Nelson, senior, came in at 51.9 in the 440. Steve Squires, junior, was best in the 2 mile with a 9:39 time and Tom Taylor, again, took the 880 in 2:02.8

In field events, Steve Stocker, junior, hurled the shot 49-1/2 feet, Tom Hocket, senior, reached 11-9 in the pole vault, Terry Beadle, senior, tossed the javelin 204-8 1/2, and Rod Jenkins, senior, threw the discus 149-4 1/4 feet.

Grant topped Marshall 75-56 with the M-Men taking four firsts and a tie. Frank Savage, took second in the low hurdles (20.5), Tom Taylor took second in the 100 with 4:31.5, and Gary Nelson took second in both 220 and 880 with times of 23.7 (220) and 2:05 (880). In the 2-mile, Steve Squires led in first place with 9:35.4 with Gary Hunt and Keith Palmer, both seniors, taking second and third.

Field event firsts were claimed by Steve Stocker in the shot put (52-6), Rod Jenkins 147-6 for the discus, Terry Beadle in the javelin (198-10), and Jack Warren, junior, tied for first in the high jump.

Jerry Pratt, sophomore, hurls the discus.



Mr. Peterson-J.V. coach

Harriers

Each night, M-Men practiced hard for coming meets.

J.V. Track, coached by Mr. Kent Peterson, has shown great potential for Varsity events. Marshall's J.V. division participated in the city qualifying meet at Madison on May 16, the city meet at Madison on May 23, and the "B" city relays at Madison on April 14. In the city relays, the J.V. cindermen collected ribbons for their competition in the high jump, broad jump, and shot put.

Despite a poor turnout for the first three track meets, outstanding performances have come from the J.V. squad. Randy Ewan, junior, in the 440; Greg Wilmarth, sophomore, and Don Freeman, frosh, in the shot, and discus; Jack Coryell, sophomore, in the javelin; and Lloyd Suiter, junior, in the middle distances, have highlighted the J.V. season.

Hurdlers And Highjumpers

Mr. Francin-Frosh coach

Frosh track, coached by Mr. Don Francin, competed in the city qualifying meet on May 16, the city meet on May 23, and the city relays at Madison on April 18. Placing third in the city relays, the frosh beat Jefferson 59-54, and in mid-season held a track meet record of three wins and no losses.

Spring Sparkled With Talented And Gay Assemblies

Spring assemblies entertained and informed the student body. New officers for student body, A.M.G. and U.M.M. were elected and installed. Rally petitions went out March 22 to any freshman or junior girls having enough points through pep or M-ettes to be eligible. The try-outs were held in an all-school assembly April 8, and elections followed the assembly. Rose Festival brought two assemblies on April 20, as the 1966 Princess was chosen. At the first, on Wednesday morning, speeches were given, and that afternoon our candidate for the Queen of Rosaria was announced. Student body officers for fall '66 were elected April 22 after they had filed petitions and had given their speeches. New A.M.G. and U.M.M. officers were also elected. In the last assembly of the year seniors were honored as awards were presented to outstanding members of the class.

The student body enjoyed also the traditional assembly produced by speech and drama students. It was an entertaining satire of T.V. shows and commercials. The Senior Class also presented a humorous assembly for the student body, one of their last contributions as Marshall students.

Senior boys create spirit in a pep assembly by appearing as the rally. Ron Ruthruff, senior, poses as Ben Franklin.

M-Men Fight Hard...

Half-way through the season varsity baseball stands eleventh in the league with 3 wins and 3 losses.

Outstanding performances by team members made games exciting. During the Franklin game Ed Vanderberg tripled in the seventh inning with two on to win the game. He also hit a two bagger knocking in a total of four runs for the game. Dan Leary, junior, hit a home run in the second inning of the Benson game with the bases loaded, bringing in four runs.

Varsity baseball should finish in the upper division next year as players with past experience will be returning. Bill Muehlheim, Dan Leary, and Dave Simpson pitcher, all juniors, will provide the team with needed strength.

Gary Blakely, junior, connects with ball as the catcher and umpire watch it travel to left field.

Coach Vince Pesky.

Out of six games played so far, the Junior Varsity baseball team has won four.

Gene Schmidt and Monty Rurey, sophomores, are the only players having over a single hit. Rurey has two doubles and Schmidt one double.

Bud Albright, freshman, is the best pitcher. All the games he has pitched have been won.

It was tense in the sixth inning of the Madison game as Marshall was behind 3-0 with two outs and the bases loaded. Coach Simpson put Gene Schmidt, sophomore, in as a pitch hitter. Schmidt hit a double, knocking in three runs to tie. The winning run did not come until the eight inning (O.T.).

Frosh Season

Starts Victoriously

Coach Ron Simonis

In mid-season the frosh baseball team has played two league games and won both. Madison was overcome 4 - 2 and Roosevelt 4 - 3.

Pitching in the Madison game was Charley Clark. He pitched a three hitter and in the same game hit a triple with the bases loaded. Ric Reznick went the distance on the mound in the Roosevelt game also allowing only three hits.

Leading hitter is second baseman Bill Dudgeon with an average of two hits each game. Next in line is short stop Kerry Peterson with three hits one of which was a triple.

Freshmen worked hard to win their games.

A. M. G. Presents Annual Twirp Week

The 1966 Twirp Week was held April 25-29. The daily events were: Monday, an assembly and twirp tag sale; Tuesday, tennis shoe day and lollipop sale; Wednesday, polka dot and plaid day and a pickle sale; Thursday, ladybug pin sale; Friday, the kangaroo Court was presented in an assembly and the week climaxed with the annual girl-ask-boy dance. The dance was entitled "Mid-Summers Night Madness". The "Phantoms" presented the dance music and bids sold for 75 cents

The committee for Twirp Week was: senior Linda Benedict, general chairman; senior Pam Stewart, dance chairman; senior Judy Weissert, bids; sophomore Debbie Ketelson, coat-check; junior Jeanne Moore, refreshments; and junior Casie Jones, publicity.

Golfers Tee Off

The 1966 golf team coached by Mr. Paul Bennett had its most successful season in five years, and the team will have a great chance of going on to the State Tournament.

The returning lettermen, are John Hinds, Jack Donaldson, and Jim Iverson, all seniors, who are joined with Larry Benson, junior, and three lettered freshmen, Gary Hinds, Mike Benge, and Scott Smith. Added strength lies with Dennis Childs and Brian Sonnenberg, sophomores.

This years team shoots in the high thirty's or low forty's and with these exceptional scores, Marshall's golf team should prove themselves in the city tournament. They also have high hopes of going on to the State Tournament at Portland's Glendoveer Golf Course held May 23 and 24.

According to Coach, Mr. Bennett, who predicts that the team will end with a record of seven wins and three losses, these scores will put the team in third or fourth in City. In qualifing for the city tournament the boys must play 18 holes of medal play, not match play, which is a very important factor. Their scores in the city tournament then qualify them for the State Tournament.

Marshall should be proud of this golf team.

Tom Glazier, John Huntington, and Coach Mesirow discuss strategy for coming matches.

Coach David Mesirow

Although the boys' tennis team has only won two of the ten matches they have played, they beat the two top schools, Jefferson and Roosevelt.

Bob Green, senior, is the top player for the team with Chris Nawrocki and Bob Gallagher, juniors, as second and third respectively. The doubles teams consist of Al Nadeau, senior, Wayne Lucke, junior, Reg Wobig, sophomore, and Dick Lynch, senior. There are two freshman on the team that will provide added strength next year. These boys are Mark Lewis and Matt Haehlen.

Girls practiced diligently for season matches.

To Prepare For Season's Matches

Leading the girls' tennis team this year were seniors Billie Goodman, Cynthia Busby, and Mieke Appel. When these three girls graduate the team will be composed mostly of freshmen. Freshmen members now include Mary Weese, Jackie Conner, Becky Lynch, and Pat McDaniel. Team strength should be renewed in coming years due to this freshmen strength.

In mid season the tennis team is tied, having won 3 and lost 3 of their matches.

Billie Goodman participated in state doubles last spring and hopes to qualify again this year. Last year girls' tennis had the best year in Marshall history, finishing 6-4 to take fourth place in city.

Themes Of Dances Varied . . .

Many different groups came to Marshall to entertain for dances throughout the year. Some of the most outstanding were the "Tikis and Fabulons", presented by Men's League, who brought a dance attendance of approximately five hundred students; the "Aladdins", presented by the junior class; "Peter and the Wolves", presented by A.M.G.; the "Classmen", presented by the senior class; and the "Quarter Masters", presented twice by the junior and sophomore classes.

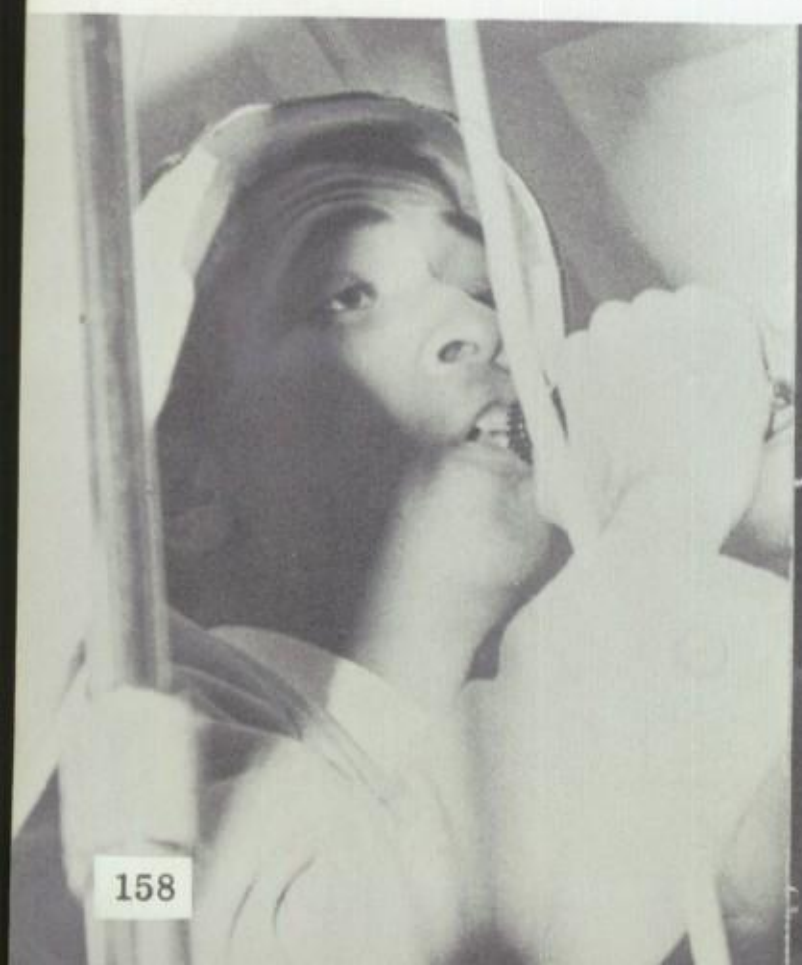
Senior class presented the "Classmen" for all-school dance.

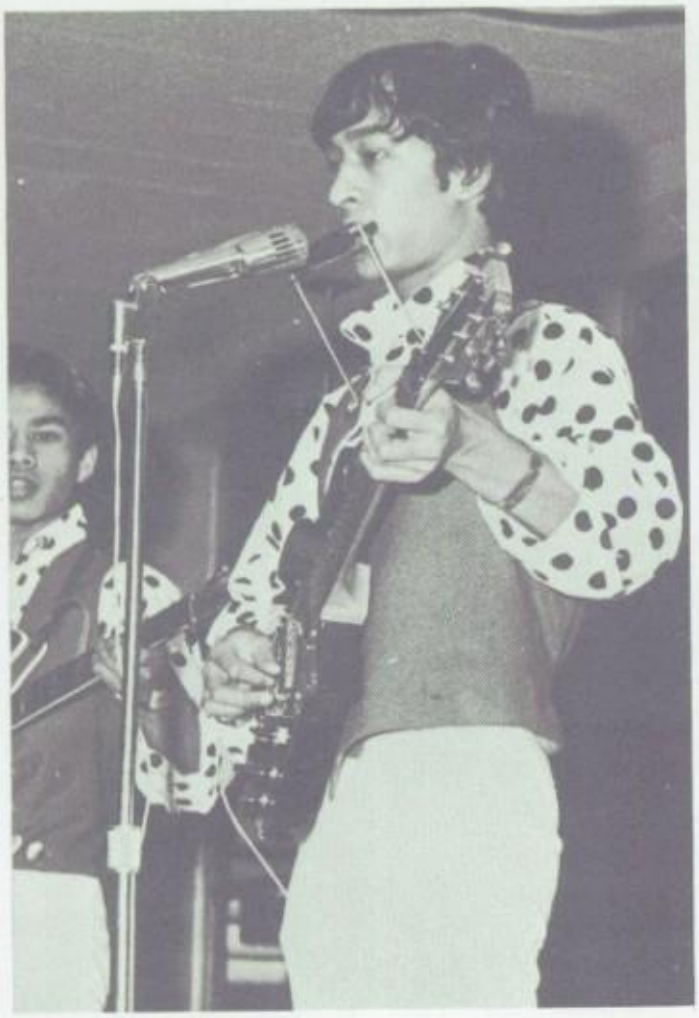
The Quartermasters were sponsored by the Junior Class all-school dance.

Tikis and the Fabulons draw crowd of approximately 500 students.

A. M. G. presented "Peter and the Wolves" during Girls' League week.



Sponsored by Masque and Gavel, the "Phantoms" present music for all-school dance.



Jeanne Moore, junior, enjoys music presented by the "Phantoms".

During Their Last Year

As Underclassmen

The Junior Class cabinets planned a "big year" for the Class of '67. Juniors strived hard through their many activities to gain support and money for their senior prom a way. Throughout the year from every junior came the cry "Our prom away!."

Among the many activities planned for the year were a fortune cookie sale, a student directory, which would list all students phone numbers, and a class dance. Although the directory idea was against school regulations, the dance proved to be one of the most successful of the year.

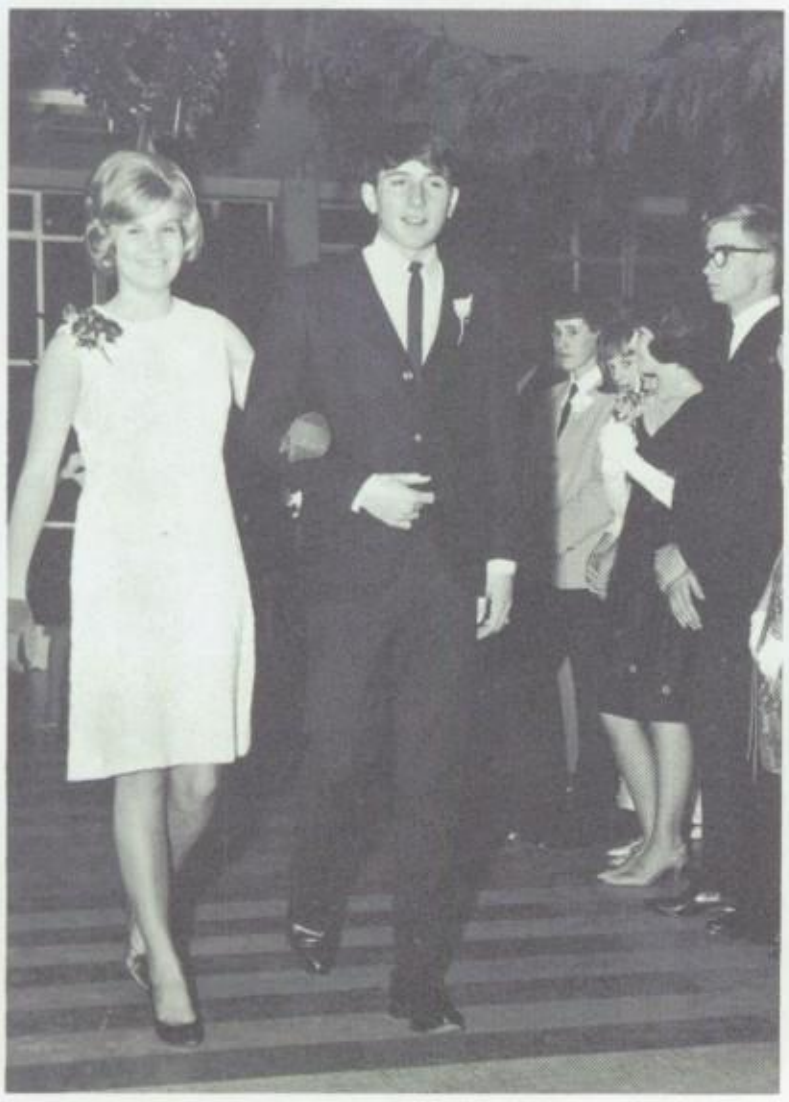
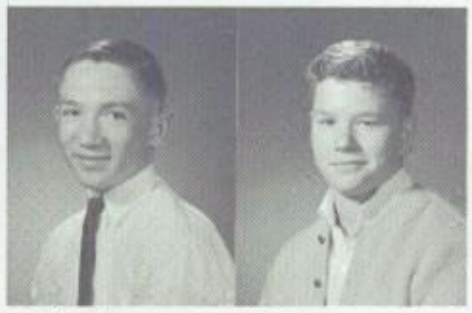
Learned Much About High School Life.





Charles Dunafon | Mark Dustan

Nancy Billingsley, freshman, escorted by Joe Cardelli, freshman, represents her class as a candidate for Miss Merry Christmas.

The class of 1969, under the leadership of Randy Hunt, president, spent the year becoming accustomed to Marshall High School and flexible scheduling. The class spent most of their time attending their three required classes--English, Social Studies, and P.E., along with two or three elective courses.

On December 3 the Freshman Class chose their first cabinet. They were: Randy Hunt, president; Tom Schwenzer, vice-president; Jackie Conner, treasurer; and Jill Ishida, secretary.

The class planned a freshman party and assisted the P.T.A. by selling tickets to the annual P.T.A. Pancake Breakfast. Another activity enjoyed by the freshman girls was the annual "Big and Little Sister Tea", sponsored by Girls' League. Pep Club had more freshman girls than any class, and at the end of the year a J.V. Rally was chosen from these girls. Frosh boys turned out for all sports, and many boys earned a letter.

FOREVER

by Gloria Marshall

Forever the wind tells me,
Is not so long
She says forever
Is her shortest song

Hope is the saddest thing
When its gay
Love lasts a moment
And then goes away

A stream should flow,
Always free
In the same direction
Going to the sea

A man should live his life
Like a flower,
Not year by year,
But hour by hour

And now the wind
Is still again
So wise is she
Such a friend

Clarions Display Outstanding Singing Ability

Clarions Dena McNeel, Pat Higginbotham, Marilyn Peden and Jerry Accuardi entertain in the Speech and Drama assembly.

The Clarions, a select group of students from the "A" Choir, perform during musical assemblies, such as the annual Speech and Drama Assembly. The Clarions also display their outstanding singing ability at the senior breakfast, the senior mother-daughter tea, and other school functions. Through singing for various community clubs, the Clarions have gained valuable experience as public performers.

Mr. Wilson - Choir Director.

An asset to Marshall's enjoyable assemblies are the students who sing together as the "A" Choir. Holiday assemblies are highlighted by appropriate songs presented by this outstanding choir. The "A" Choir does not perform exclusively for Marshall students. They have participated in the Portland Public High School Choral Festival held in the spring, assemblies held in elementary schools throughout the Portland area, and they have performed at Barnes Hospital for veterans in Vancouver. The "A" Choir also performs at Marshall High School's Baccalaureate.

Frank Schauman Comes

To Marshall From Finland

Marshall's foreign exchange student, Frank Schauman comes from Turku, Finland. He and 59 other students from Finland are spending the year in America under the AFS program. He left his home August 1, traveled by plane to Amsterdam, by ship to New York, and then to San Francisco by plane. He arrived in Portland immediately before school began last fall, and was greeted by his American family, the Spellmans, who have two teenagers, Pete and Mary, attending Marshall.

Frank is taking six subjects this year-senior English, senior math, American problems, American history, architectural drafting and advanced speech. He also is very active with AFS. He and the eight other foreign exchange students in the Portland area have visited other high schools to speak of their countries, have attended an AFS conference in Corvallis, and have taken several trips one of which was to California's redwood forest.

Frank, whose father is a doctor, has no other brothers or sisters. He attended an all-boy school and took twelve or thirteen subjects each year, including physics, math, chemistry, Finnish and world history and four languages. When he returns home Frank will have another year of high school to complete before he can enter university, where he hopes to study medicine or architecture.

Frank will leave Portland June 20 on a bus trip across the United States with the other Portland foreign exchange students. Their destination is Washington D.C.. Frank will arrive home in Finland sometime in August. He says of this country "America is ideal for the AFS program. You always have a place in your home for us."

Frank plays the part of Ben Cartwright in the Speech and Drama Assembly.

Frank Schauman escorts his American sister, Mary Spellman, a candidate for Rose Festival princess.

The talented Art Staff provides Marshall with outstanding posters and banners Under the direction of Mr. Backus, the staff works diligently to furnish the original signs which inform Marshall students of coming activities. Their competence is demonstrated by their colorful and unique spirit banners which decorate the halls before each game. Other activities, such as the Dad and Daughter Banquet, are also delightfully advertised for the benefit of the students.

A STICKY PROBLEM

By profession I am a teen-age baby sitter.

I am now sixteen years of age, but my career started when I was nine. In these seven years as a baby-sitter, I've prided myself on my ability to cope with any emergency or embarrassing situation that appeared. I have baby sat with dogs, birds, kids, goats, and expectant ewes and cows. But a recent call really floored me!

The lady who called asked me if I was free that evening. When I had answered affirmatively, she asked the routine questions, such as what I charged, what transportation I expected and I, in turn asked the ages of the children. I was told that they were 4 1/2, 3, and 1 in age. Their names were Cynthia --- here I pictured a small, shy little girl, Candy ---- a mischievious one, and Charley ---- a nebulous type. I then agreed to stay with them for the evening. How I was to regret that decision later!

I arrived at the ---- well, we'll use the name Smith, so that I won't embarrass anyone. Anyway, I arrived at the Smith's house shortly after seven. Mrs. Smith answered my ring and showed me into a nicely furnished living room; the children were nowhere to be seen. As if she were thinking my thoughts for me, Mrs. Smith explained their absence.

"Mr. Smith and the children are in the rumpus room. They will be here in a minute. I'm afraid, though, that we will have to wait in the kitchen for them for the children aren't allowed in the living room."

"Oh, boy," I thought to myself, "I'll sure have to be careful here! She's one of those finicky housekeepers. These poor children!"

Aloud, I assured her that I wouldn't let them into the restricted area, and, as I followed her into the kitchen, she told me other things that the children were restricted in.

She seemed overly anxious but, until we entered the kitchen's swinging door, I couldn't understand why.

For, when I entered the kitchen, I found not three children on Mr. Smith's lap, but three baby chimps! Instead of saying what was on my mind, I went over to Mr. Smith and asked to hold one of them. Both adults seemed enormously relieved and Mr. Smith handed me the biggest one ---- she fitted right into the crook in my arm ---- telling me that it was Cynthia. That little thing seemed to like me as much as I decided that I liked her.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith took their leave, evidently assured that her "children" ---- that's what she called them ---- were in good hands.

I thought so, too, until two minutes after the Smith's car left the driveway. At least they had grace enough to wait for 120 seconds before they kept me busy 360!

It was, curiously enough, my shy little Cynthia that started the commotion. I had taken the chimps down to the rumpus room where all three had retreated quietly to a far corner. I was watching their antics when the phone rang. The Smith's had an extension phone in the rumpus room, however, I had to turn my back on the chimps.

I had just answered when there was the sound of a breaking glass object in the kitchen so I asked the person on the telephone to please wait a moment. I then rushed up the stairs in stumbling haste and into the kitchen to find a jelly jar broken on the floor. Cynthia wouldn't let Candy or Charley have any but she was covered from head to toe with grape jelly! I remembered, after cleaning up the floor, about the party on the phone and rushed to it.

"Hello?" I requested.

"Yes, I'm still here," came a sarcastic reply. "I'd like to speak to Cynthia, please."

I stifled a giggle and said, "I'm afraid you have the wrong number. The only Cynthia here is a chimpanzee."

I then heard the loud bang of a receiver. I then involuntarily took a step backward as I re-entered the kitchen. Candy and Charley had taken matters into their own hands and had started a cleaning up job on Cynthia. Managing to get most of what they had taken out of Cynthia's coat into their own.

Well, all three of them had unwanted baths that night and by the time the Smith's had come home, I was "chimp tired!"

I.C.C. Sponsors Marshall's

First Club Week.

The Inter-Club Council, consisting of all club presidents, sponsored Marshall's first Club Week, December 13-17. The purpose of the week was to encourage students to join a club which captured their interest. During the week each club had an opportunity to hold a sale. At an assembly, on Friday, all Marshall clubs were presented with charters. At that time each President had an opportunity to explain the purpose and activities of their respective clubs.

Sales were an important part of every club's money raising activities.

A.I.M. Points The Way Towards A Better Marshall

Devoted to the improvement of Marshall, A.I.M. became a very active club the past year. Activities included sales, rummage sales and car washes. With the money the club sponsored a scholarship.

The club presented Marshall with a school flag. The flag has a navy blue background with the school crest on one side and the words John Marshall High School with a Minuteman on the reverse side.

A citizenship award is also presented to students who have served the school or community.

Gary Hunt, senior, and Mike Bertasso, junior, display the school flag presented to Marshall by A.I.M.

During the year N. H. S. sponsors many activities. One such activity was an annual alumni tea in December, given in honor of the graduates of 1965. Each year a scholarship is given to a deserving senior. In order to raise money for the scholarship, concessions are sold at the football and basketball games. The society also escorted the various college representatives through the school during the college conferences. Some members also helped to guide the eighth grade students through the building in January and February. The members also maintain the honor roll board in the main hall.

Associated Marshall Girls again presented their traditional activities; A. M. G. Week, climaxed by the Big and Little Sister Tea, the Dad and Daughter Banquet, "Thank Heaven for Little Girls", and Twirp Week. For the first time Boys' League and Girls' League co-operated to sponsor the Christmas dance, "Winterland by Night".

Money raised from various A.M.G. sales went toward adopting a foreign orphan for one year. A scholarship is also presented to a graduating senior girl.

All girls who attend Marshall are automatically a member of Girls' League. A.M.G. has again strived to unify all girls and to promote the qualities of friendliness, womanliness and scholarship.

Marshall's Lettermen united in an effort to promote a more desirable student union, to help students find seats in assemblies and to enforce good conduct. A basketball game in March vieing the faculty against the varsity team was sponsored by the Lettermen with the proceeds going to the Red Cross. During the exciting after-school game, the varsity upset the faculty with a 67-36 win. Programs for the state wrestling meet were also sold by the Lettermen.

F.T.A. Explores Teaching Profession

F.T.A. spent the year analyzing education and teaching. The members helped in the English Resource Center to gain experience as teacher aides. The highlight of the year was an April 1 convention at Jefferson, which all F.T.A. clubs in Portland attended. Linda Green, a senior and a member of Marshall's club, spoke on her experience as a student teacher.

F.T.A.'s yearly project is to visit a college, high school, or grade school.

For Marshall's Athletic Teams

Pep Club's main contribution to Marshall was a Sports Hall of Fame. It was presented to Dr. Petrequin on December 3 during an assembly. Placed in the main hall, the Hall of Fame will contain pictures of outstanding boy or girl athletes.

Each athlete must meet certain requirements. First, he must be nominated by a Marshall coach and must receive a majority of votes from Marshall's coaches. Also he must be a senior athlete displaying good sportsmanship and citizenship. Finally, he must make more than one first string city team.

The $125 for this gift was raised through various after school and ribbon sales.

Marshall's Pep Club continued their loyal support to the football, basketball and wrestling teams this year. Cooperating with the rallies the club raised the spirit of the team and audience and gave Marshall needed support. Pep girls are awarded one point for each game they attend. In order to try out for Varsity rally, a girl must accumulate 30 points during her junior year. Twenty points are needed for the J.V. rally.

An Accurate Record

Of Marshall Events

Diane Nichols - Lex Editor

Janet Hentges - Lex Managing Editor.

The annual staff is one of the hardest working and least appreciated groups in the school. In the early fall the staff plans page lay-outs and decides on a cover design, a hed style, and the type of paper the book is to be printed on. Then each section editor is responsible for ordering pictures, and writing cutlines, copy and heds for those particular pages. The three staff photographers take, develop, and print all pictures required for the book-usually about six hundred. In the spring, when final deadlines draw near, the entire staff stays at school until six o'clock every evening to work on the yearbook. The 284 pages were completed and at the printer on May 8.

The LEX is financed by book sales at registration time in the fall, by ad sales, and by the sale of club pages. Total cost, for printing, binding, and covers is usually about $7,500.

Verdict Keeps Students Well Informed

Of Past And Present Activities

Row 1: Carol Lovel, Barb Manougian, Kathy Greenley, and Rosemary Larsen. Row 2: Mark Langston, Mike Rothery, Terri Palzinski, and Steve Morgan.

The VERDICT staff provides an accurate record of all Marshall activities for the student body, faculty, and the surrounding community. Twenty-one issues are completed during the year.

A special issue devoted to the Country Fair, Marshall High Dads' Club annual fund raiser, is presented each year and is delivered by Marshall students to all Marshall district homes the week preceeding the Fair.

A mid-year shift enables staff members to occupy two different positions during the school year. This gives the members an opportunity to become fully acquainted with two newspaper responsibilities.

First year journalism students, while learning the basic fundamentals of journalism, have a great opportunity to prepare for future staff work on the LEX or VERDICT. Experience is gained as the students prepare a tuberculosis newspaper and the Cub issue of the VERDICT.

Journalism 1-2 is required of all students wishing to be a member of the LEX or VERDICT staffs. Occasional exceptions are made on the senior level if there are staff vacancies. Other exceptions are made for artists and photographers.

With Care Of Books

And Educational Materials

Student aides helping in the bookroom are assigned to various duties as they care for Marshall's books and other educational materials. All books used by Marshall students must be stacked and stamped by bookroom helpers. Other duties assumed by bookroom aides include assisting wheelchair students travel from floor to floor, helping students look for lost articles, and doing tasks assigned them by Mrs. O'Day, bookroom superintendent.

A factor vital to the efficiency of the John Marshall library are the many willing assistants who aid the head librarian, Mrs. Knee land.

To the teachers, the visual aids crew is an absolute necessity. These students handle efficiently the many technical tasks which require skill and competence. They work in the bookroom, deliver and assist with the showing of films, run the public address system and guarantee efficiency by keeping audio-visual materials in excellent condition.

The stage crew, a group necessary for the successful production of every play at Marshall, work vigorously under the direction of the drama teacher, Mr. William Quesinberry. Possessing artistic and construction abilities, these boys make it possible for Marshall's play productions to be presented on a stage set with outstanding scenery and props.

Student Counseling Staff Performs Various Duties

Counseling aides gain experience in many office duties.

The girls of the counseling staff must be honest and trustworthy as well as efficient, because all counseling information is confidential. Assisting students with their many problems, typing, filing, running errands and introducing new students to the school are a few of the many duties of the counseling aides.

Helps With Many Secretarial Duties

Gaining valuable secretarial experience by helping adult secretaries with office duties are the business-minded girls known as the office staff. These girls must have taken preliminary business courses to enable them to perform their office duties efficiently. By answering the telephone, typing registration room attendance cards, and generally, doing everything they are asked to do, the student office girls are kept busy.

DEFINED AT LAST

by Gloria Marshall

Love is the tallest tree
With the smallest leaf
Almost with such certainty
As to overthrow the feather
In the brim of a featherless hat
Such is love and no more
Than three letters
Like if you add one more
And make it five
Ever see a bird
Standing on his head
In the middle of the ocean?
Thats what love is.
